OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF THE POST OFFICE IN INDIA, January 1st, 1859.

THE following Conditions are to be observed in sending Book-Packets by Post:—

1*st*.—The Postage must be pre-paid in full, by means of Postage Stamps affixed outside the Packet on its cover.

2*nd*.—Every Packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides, so as to admit of the enclosures being removed for examination.

3*rd*.—The Packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters whether sealed or open) and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books; and in short whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto.

4*th*.—The Packet must not contain any letter, closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor must there be any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written or printed in any such Packet or on its cover. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.

5*th*.—No Book-Packet can be received if it exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth.

6*th*.—Any Packet which shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall have any letter or any communication of the nature of a letter written or printed in it or upon its cover will be charged with Letter Postage.

7*th*.—If a Packet be found to contain any letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorized enclosure, the letter or enclosure will be taken out and forwarded to the address on the Packet, charged with full Postage as an unpaid letter together with an additional Book-rate; that is, with the Postage chargeable on a Book weighing not more than half a lb the remainder of the Packet, if duly pre-paid with Stamps, will then be forwarded to its address.

8*th*.—If a Packet be not sufficiently pre-paid with Stamps but nevertheless bear Stamps equal to a single Book-rate, it will be forwarded charged with the deficient Book-Postage together with an additional Book-rate; but any Packet which shall not bear Postage Stamps equal to a single Book-rate will be detained and charged with the Letter Postage.

9*th*.—No Book-Packet weighing more than three lbs can be sent to or from the East Indies or to New South Wales.

10*th*.—The Colonial Book-Post extends to those Colonies only which are so marked in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

11*th*.—In no case can a Book-Packet be sent to the Colonies (except at the letter rate of Postage,) through a Foreign Country.

Special Notice is directed to the subjoined Clauses of Rules, the want of attention to which has occasioned the Post Office much inconvenience.

2*nd*.—A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

3*rd*.—Under Section XXIII. of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon upon every letter without exception, which may be re-directed in any Post Office. For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta and addressed to Hooghly is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due, had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

4*th*.—The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters, not only imposes much labor upon them, but in large Offices seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood, that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

There is only one delivery of letters at the General Post Office on Sundays, and Banghy Parcels are neither received nor despatched on that day.

Letters and Newspapers despatched to and from the United Kingdom by private Vessels are liable to the following rates of Postage which must be pre-paid by Stamps:—

	Rs.	As.	Pie.
Letters not exceeding ½ oz. in weight	0	4	0
Ditto exceeding ½ oz. but not exceeding 1 oz.	0	8	0

And so on adding 8 annas for each oz. or fraction thereof which includes Inland Postage.

Newspapers not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, 2*d*. or 10 pie must be pre-paid in cash, and no Inland Postage is required upon such papers.

Parcels conveyed by the above opportunity for the United Kingdom are liable to Letter rates of Postage.

Notice.

The following is an Extract of an Order of the Government of India, No. 884 of the 13th July 1855:—

"No Public Officer is authorized to send Covers on the Public Service by Post, without payment of Postage, unless he is at the time on active duty and in charge of the Office by virtue of which the privilege is enjoyed. All letters superscribed as 'on the Public Service only' must, even though the Postage thereon be not paid, be received and opened by the Officer to whom they are addressed, but if any such, or partially paid letter so superscribed, and addressed to any Officer except a Secretary to Government be found when opened, to relate to the private affairs of the Sender, the Postage will be debited to him and he will be further liable to be dealt with under Section XLVII., Act No. XVII. of 1854.

His Honor in Council further directs that unpaid or insufficiently paid letters addressed to any such Officer or Department and not superscribed "on the Public Service only" be refused, or if opened that it be at the risk and cost of the opener."

Letters arriving at the Presidency Towns by Mail Steamers will be immediately sorted for delivery according to the address alone, without any reference to instructions which may have been received regarding change of address; such changes will be left to be discovered by the Delivery Officers, and be corrected in the forward and unclaimed Departments of the Office.

Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter, without exception, which may be re-directed in the Post Office.

Letters, &c., received by the Steamer will be delivered at the Window of the Post Office only to parties who have registered their names. Applications to the Post Office on the day of the Steamer's arrival to intercept and re-direct letters, &c., cannot be attended to, as they are found not only to impose much labour but seriously retard the delivery and despatch of the Mails.

ALL Banghy Parcels being registered before despatch it is needless to have a Banghy Parcel specially registered by payment of the Fee of 4 annas as no additional precaution can be taken of a specially Registered Parcel which is not taken in the case of every ordinary Banghy Parcel.

UNDER the orders of Government, no fourth delivery of letters by the Post Office is allowed. Mails which are received by Steamers from Suez at so late an hour in the day as not to admit of the letters being taken out for delivery by 6 P. M. are detained till the following morning, but parties who have registered their names under the usual fee, are entitled to receive their letters and Marseilles Newspapers so soon as the Mails are sorted, and which is generally about 2½ hours after receipt of the Mail, at the Post Office.

THE order exempting Officers with the Army from the payment of forward Postage will cease to have effect from the 1st May 1860, by the Orders of Government.

Forward Newspapers.—Extra or Forward Postage is chargeable on every Newspaper re-directed at the Post Office of original address and forwarded to another Post Office.

MAILS for Akyab, Rangoon and Moulmein are made up on the 3rd and 19th of each month, for transmission by the Contract Steamers or by Government Vessels, which sail on the morning of the 4th and 20th, unless the Contractors choose to postpone the departure for 48 hours, of which they have the power on making a requisition.

of February last. But the issue of Treasury Bills in the two forms under the Notification, No. 34, of the 30th of April 1859, of indefinite duration and amount; and which, as long as such an issue lasted, acted as a continual and unlimited means of borrowing on the part of the Government, and of absorbing money from the market. It was the desire of the Government, after the closing of the five-and-a-half per cent Loan, also to close all other means by which the Treasury could borrow money, and therefore by Notification, No. 33, dated the 27th ultimo, notice was given that money would cease to be received for the purchase of Treasury Bills, and that this means of creating debt would be closed.

But it became necessary to consider how to deal with the amount of Bills in circulation, which thus constituted a portion of the public debt, and it was decided that the amount being very small, only about 23 Lakhs in this Presidency, and 59 Lakhs for all other parts of India, including all the different classes of Treasury Bills; i. e., 3 pie Bills, and 2½ pie Bills Nos. 1 and 2; the owners should have the choice of converting them into a permanent Stock, or of receiving their money as the Bills fell due. An option is given to them to take four per cent, five per cent, or five-and-a-half per cent Stock, subject to the same terms as regards the time and conditions of repayment, as applied to those several Stocks, which have already been closed; but at such a price as the Government shall fix.

It must be plain that by this option given to the present holders of Treasury Bills, the Government does not add to its entire debt or abstract any money from the market: while, by the arrangement, the Government closes the Treasury against any further borrowing. All that is now done is to convert a debt, for payment of which the Government might be called upon at short and uncertain times, into one of a more fixed and permanent character, as certainty is essential to the economical management of the public finances; such conversion, however, to take place entirely at the option of the holders, and provided they are willing to give such terms as the Government think fair to the public: otherwise they will be paid off in cash.

So far therefore from this operation being intended as a new mode of indirectly raising Loans, it is adopted as a plan of effectually closing all the existing means open to the Treasury of borrowing money; which will be made more apparent when it is stated that the Government has no intention of coming upon the Indian Money Market for Loans of any kind whatever, whether in the shape of Treasury Bills, or in any other form, during the current financial year ending the 30th of April 1861.

Resolution.—With reference to the Financial Resolution of the 7th April, regarding the new system of Estimate, Budget, Accounts, and Audit, it is necessary to consider how the details of the several measures involved therein may be practically carried out, and how the principles prevailing in England may be adopted to the existing circumstances of Departments in India. A Committee will therefore be appointed, consisting of the following Gentlemen, to consider the above points generally, viz:—

Mr. C. H. Lushington.
Hon'ble E. Drummond.
Mr. R. Temple.

In considering the main points, the Committee will enter into such details as they may find necessary. Among the matters for consideration, will be the manner in which the specific sums sanctioned in the Budget should be placed at the credit of the various expending Departments; the mode in which such expenditure should be accounted for to the Local Accountants; the mode in which the Local Accountants should account to the Audit Department in Calcutta; the manner in which the Audit should be constituted, and the detailed Rules by which it should be guided in the execution of its functions.

The consideration of the Committee will be primarily directed to all Departments and in all Presidencies save those immediately pertaining to the Military Service. But the Committee will observe whatever resolution may be passed relative to the Military Finance Department, the Committee's attention will be specially given to all Civil Departments, to the Postal, Telegraphs and Marine Departments, &c. And as there will be but one Audit for each Department, namely, that conducted by the Audit Department in Calcutta, it will be necessary that the future duties and designation of the Officer now called Civil Auditor under each Local Government, be considered.

The Committee will proceed with their enquiries as soon as practicable, communicating their progress at short intervals to the Financial Branch of the Supreme Government, and will at the close submit a report on the detailed proposals they may make.

turned to Camp and made a "Mundesoor," arrived there the Rebels were encamped taking two days' supplies, ry Waggons, Infantry, led Horses, Tents and Baggage of every description, also ghorahwallas and grass-cutters behind, under command of Captain Holmes, with orders to follow leisurely, according to the instructions I might send back, I started towards "Setur Mhow," but finding my information had been wrong, I changed my direction towards "Caimpore," at which place I came on the track of the Rebels and followed it, for as most of the villages had been plundered, it was often difficult to obtain guides, and halted that night on the left bank of the "Chumbul River."

4. Marched at day-break, for I could not follow the track by moonlight, crossed the Chumbul and came up with the Rebel Force encamped at "Dug;" at 5-40 P. M., drove in their advanced posts and bivouacked for the night in sight of their fires.

5. Advanced at 4 o'clock A. M. so as to attack them at daybreak, and halted in the plains of "Dug" till light, when I found the main body had left the Camp the previous evening on their out-posts being driven in, but had left strong mounted picquets which had remained till 3 A. M., and then followed the main body; pressed after them, and crossed the "Koliscind River."

6. Having started at 3 o'clock A. M. from the right bank of the "Koliscind," and marching eight miles, I came in sight of the fires of the Rebel Camp at "Gerapore." When I advanced over the ploughed land to deaden sound and waited for day-light, I then advanced and found that the main body had marched and were two miles ahead. I immediately trotted off after the main body and came up with them, and on emerging from a woody lane found them drawn up in line of battle on a rising ground, with a jungle and a ravine in their rear. I formed the Cavalry into columns of Division and advanced, when the Rebels commenced firing. I then moved my leading column to the right; uncovering my guns brought them rapidly to the front, when they opened fire at about 400 yards, grape and shell. The Rebels after a great deal of shouting retired, and I ordered out two divisions of Cavalry to attack on their (the enemy's) right, which they did, driving them into the jungle. I then re-formed and advanced in two columns well together through the jungle and across the ravine, Rebels retiring before me. On coming out on the other side of the jungle which was a thin strip, I found that the Rebels had changed their position, left back, and were re-formed on a rising ground on my left. I advanced my two columns, bringing forward my right and formed line to the front, guns in the centre, and advanced to within 400 yards from their line and opened fire, pouring in grape and shell, apparently with great effect. The Rebels then made an attempt at an advance in line, and failing that tried to turn my left flank, but I directed Sir George Leith, who commanded the left squadron, to half wheel to his left and move up, which he did quickly, and they retired. I then ordered Sir William Gordon, who commanded the right squadron, to advance, bringing up his right shoulders, which he did, and advanced, destroying and cutting up numbers, the Rebels flying through the jungle and across the ravine, but he gallantly followed them and cut off a number of Camels, &c. I then advanced with the Artillery and other Squadron, cutting up a few Rebels, and re-formed the Force, and followed through the jungle across the ravine, but owing to the difficulty of having to make a road for the Guns, I was delayed for a few minutes, and dismounted the Cavalry to rest; the moment the Guns were across, I took up the pursuit over an open, but stony and hilly country, where I again found the Rebels drawn up on a hill, but on bringing the Guns to the front they quickly retreated, and I then pursued them in line, Guns trotting down the road, and a squadron of Lancers on each flank, for about five (5) miles, towards "Monohur Sarrah," when, in consequence of their dispersing, and the Horses being beat, I abandoned the pursuit, but seeing four Elephants in their front, I sent a Troop, under Captain Lowe, supported by another under Sir George Leith, to dash forward and bring them in, which duty Captain Lowe performed in a very satisfactory manner. I then returned to "Gerapore" and bivouacked for the night.

7. I think it my duty to bring to the notice of the Major-General Commanding, the gallant and able manner in which Major Learmouth commanded and led the 17th Lancers.

8. Also to mention with the highest praise Serjeant Major Butler, Royal Horse Artillery, who was in command of the Guns, for the celerity and precision with which he brought them into action over a most difficult country.

9. I also beg to state that I received every assistance from my Acting Staff Officer, Lieutenant Gonne, 17th Lancers, from my Interperter Mr. Reeves, 6th Native Infantry, and my Acting Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant Nolan, 17th Lancers, all of whom were most active and intelligent in conveying orders, &c.

10. From the untiring zeal and energy of Captain Hutchinson, the Political Agent, who accompanied me during these operations, both in obtaining accurate information, procuring supplies, and rendering me every assistance in his power, I attribute in a very great measure the success which has attended them.

11. I cannot too highly praise the conduct of both Officers and men in this pursuit for their gallantry in the Field, and for the cheerfulness with which they bore their great fatigue, and the privation of liquor and European supplies, sleeping each night on the bare ground without any sort of covering, although the nights were exceedingly cold, without a murmur or complaint of any kind. Casualties as per margin.

Memorandum on the proposed formation of Circles for Paper Currency in India.

With the view of giving effect to the system of a Paper Currency for India, it is necessary to consider the Currency Circles into which the various Presidencies and Provinces should be divided, and the places which should be the Head-Quarters of the several Circles respectively.

2. Circles of Districts will be formed for the purposes of the Paper Currency. For each Circle a separate series of Notes will be issued: the denomination of these Notes will be expressed in English, and in at least two of the written languages in use within the Circle.

3. Within the Circle the Notes will be absolutely legal tender. Every one may make payments on them; none can refuse to receive them, and no discount can be charged on them. The Government will receive its own revenue, and make its payments in them. But beyond the limits of the Circle, they will be dealt with in transactions between man and man in the same manner as Notes and Coins not belonging to the Districts. Again the Notes are immediately convertible into Silver at the Head-Quarters of the Circle, where there will be located an Officer to be called a Deputy Commissioner of Issue. He will have an Office to be called the Office of Issue of the Circle, and a Treasury containing the reserves of Silver and the Government Securities, which are to ensure the instant convertibility of the Notes. Any holder of a Note may get it cashed at the Office of Issue in the Circle to which the Note belongs, and also at the Office of Issue at the Presidency to which the Circle belongs, but at no other Office of Issue.

4. If any Circle should be more than ordinarily extensive, then at some convenient place within it, an Office of Sub-Issue might be established in addition to the regular Office of Issue. The Office of Sub-Issue would answer all the purposes of an Office of Issue. But the Notes would all belong to the series of the Circle. By these means, while the public convenience would be consulted, the multiplication of series of Notes would be avoided.

5. In each Circle the Notes of all the other Circles which adjoin or abut thereon, will be received in payment of revenue. Such Notes, however, will not be re-issued from the Treasuries of such Circle, but will be exchanged for the proper Notes of the Circle at the Offices of Issue as often as suits the convenience of such Treasuries, and a periodical exchange of Notes and adjustment of accounts will take place between the Issue Departments of all such Circles.

6. Now for the carrying out of the above objects, the Districts comprising a Circle should be enclosed by one ringfence, as it were, and situated in a compact geographical position, so that parties requiring Cash instead of Notes may not have to go too far for it. They should form a tract in which the same language is used, so that there may be no doubt regarding the denomination of the Notes. They should be united together by associations of trade, so that the transaction of ordinary current business may be facilitated by circulation of Notes.

7. The Head-Quarter of a Currency Circle should be at a place where there is a Civil Establishment, where Civil Officers of rank are stationed, and where an European Force is cantoned. Also it should be at a place where a large mart exists, where the produce of surrounding Districts is collected, and where the chief commercial affairs of the Districts in the Circle are more or less centered, so that the convenience of the public may be consulted, and the safety of the Currency Reserves may be ensured as much as possible.

8. The above conditions then should be observed as much as possible in the defining of the Circles, and in the selecting the Head-Quarters of each Circle. On the one hand it is desirable to have as many Circles as may be needed for the public convenience. If the Circles were too few, then their great size might lead to inconvenience. On the other hand the Circles should be as few as may consist with the above object. If there were too many, then although their compact size might be convenient in some respects, still another kind of inconvenience would be produced, inasmuch as the Circles being numerous, there would be too many different kinds of Notes.

9. In the Bengal Presidency, the Department of the Chief Commissioner of Paper Currency at Calcutta would manufacture the Notes, and transmit them in sufficient quantities, to the Department of Issue in each Circle. He would take care that the Deputy Commissioner of Issue in each Circle was supplied with the requisite quantity of Silver and of Government Securities to ensure the convertibility of the Notes. For the Madras and Bombay Presidencies, the Chief Commissioner at Calcutta would also have the Notes made, and would transmit them to the Commissioners for Madras and Bombay respectively, who would again cause each Deputy Commissioner of Issue in their respective Circles to be supplied with the proper number of Notes. The Chief Commissioner at Calcutta and the Commissioners at Madras and Bombay would see that each Deputy Commissioner of Issue in the Circles of those Presidencies was duly furnished with reserves of Silver and Government Securities.

10. In the Bengal Presidency there are three Lieutenant-Governorships, viz., Bengal, North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab; also the Provinces of Oude, Nagpore, and Pegu, immediately under the Government of India. It will be desirable to consider the Circles in each part of the Presidency separately, although it does not follow necessarily that the limits of the Circles should exactly coincide with those of the several Lieutenant-Governorships.

11. For the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal there will be an Issue Department, and a Deputy Commissioner of Currency at Calcutta. In the Calcutta Circle there must be included the Districts of Central and Lower Bengal as follows:

24-Pergunnahs.	Moorshedabad.
Howrah.	Bancoora.
Hooghly.	Pachete.
Midnapore.	Pubna.
Sunderbunds.	Bogra.
Jessore.	Rungpore.
Baraset.	Dinagepore.
Nuddea.	Malda.
Burdwan.	Rajshahye.
Beerbhoom.	Purneah.

In all these Districts the Bengalee language is used, and but a few of the Districts are at any great distance from Calcutta. The Oordoo and Bengalee characters will appear on the Notes.

12. In Bengal then there would remain the Districts of Eastern Bengal and Assam; and the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, namely:

Furreedpore.	Mymensing.
Dacca.	Sylhet.
Backergunge.	North Cachar.
Tippera.	South Cachar.
Chittagong.	Jynteah.
Noacolly.

These might either be formed into a separate Circle of which Dacca would from its commercial situation form the appropriate Head-Quarters; or else they might be included in the Calcutta Circle with an Office of Sub-Issue at Dacca. But owing to the distance of some of these Districts from Calcutta, and the vicinity of important centres of river traffic, such as Serajgunge and Narainguge on the Berhampooter and its feeders, an Office of Sub-Issue will at least be necessary. In all these Districts the Bengalee language is spoken. It will be seen presently that three more Circles will be required for Bengal. And if on this account it be thought desirable to diminish the number of Circles, then one Circle might be saved by having a Sub-Issue only at Dacca, and retaining only one large Circle for all the rich, populous, and fertile Districts in which the Bengalee language is spoken.

13. To the North-East is the somewhat wild, though rising Province of Assam, containing the following Districts, namely:

Gowalpara.	Luckimpore.
Gowhatty.	Sudya.
Nowgong.	Durrung.
Seebsaugor.

In these Districts the Assamese language with a written character is used, and Bengalee is not understood or very little understood. In this point of view there ought perhaps to be a separate Assam Circle with Head-Quarters at Gowhatty. But although these Districts have a growing trade owing to the water traffic of the Berhampooter, still their population and revenue are small as compared with more civilized divisions. Commercially there would be no difficulty in their being included in the same Circle as Dacca. Their trade passes down the river to the Emporium there. If they be not erected into a separate Circle, they should belong to the same Circle as Dacca.

14. South of Bengal is the Province of Oorissa, comprising the Districts of Cuttack.	Balasore.

Pooree.

In these the Oorya written language is used, and the Bengalee is not understood. In this point of view then, there should be a separate Circle for Oorissa, with Head-Quarters at Cuttack. But here again the population and revenue is small as compared with other Circles. On the other hand it has not much trade with Calcutta, except in Salt. If it be not made into a Circle of itself it will be included in the Calcutta Circle. In that case however an Office of Sub-Issue might be required.

15. In the Bengal Lieutenant-Governorship there remain the Provinces of Behar and Chota Nagpore or South-West Frontier. In these are included the Districts of

Bhaugulpore,	Behar,
Monghyr,	Palamow,
Tirhoot,	Chota Nagpore,
Patna,	Ramgurh,
Sarun,	Sumbulpore,
Shahabad,

some of which are among the most populous and fertile in the Presidency. In these Districts the Oordoo, Hindi and Bengalee languages are understood. The trade centres in the rich marts of Behar on the banks of the Ganges. And the Head-Quarters of the Circle might be at Patna, where there is a large Military Station.

16. In the North-West Provinces, Allahabad, being now the seat of Government, and being very centrically situated, suggests itself as a proper place for the Head-Quarters of a Circle. Though not itself a place of great trade, it stands on one of the most important points on the whole line of the Grand Trunk Road, and is close to several great marts, such as Mirzapore and Benares. Again it is contiguous to the Central and Southern part of the Province of Oude and to the Bundlekund District. In the Allahabad Circle might be included the following Districts:

N. W. Provinces...	Allahabad.
	Benares.
	Mirzapore.
	Ghazeepore.
	Azimgurh.
	Goruckpore.
	Jounpore.
	Cawnpore.
	Futtehpore.
Oude ...	Sultanpore.
	Faizabad.
	Salone.
	Lucknow.
	Duriabad.
	Oonao.
	Baraich.
	Mullapore.
	Gonda.
Bundlekund ...	Banda.
	Humeerpore.

The Circle thus formed would be a very large and important one, but the Districts are compactly situated. If needed a Sub-Issue Office might be established at Lucknow; but probably this would not be found to be essential. In all these Districts the Oordoo and Hindi languages are used.

17. Proceeding in the North-West direction, Furruckabad appears to have a very centrical situation, and is an important centre of trade. It is also a Military Station with an European Force. In this Circle might be included the central part of the Doab between the Ganges and Jumna, the Provinces of Rohilcund and Kumaon, and the Western Districts of Oude. The Districts of this Circle then would stand thus—

Doab ...	Furruckabad.
	Mynpoorie.
	Etawah.
	Agra.
	Muttra.
	Allygurh.
Rohilcund ...	Budaon.
	Bareilly.
	Shajehanpore.
	Bijnore.
	Mooradabad.
Oude ...	Mullaon.
	Muhumda.
	Seetapore.
Kumaon ...	Gurhwal.

In these Districts also the Oordoo and Hindi languages are used.

18. Turning towards the Districts bordering on the Jumna, and those lying between the Jumna and the Sutlej, the Station of Delhi offers itself as the most suitable place for the centre of a Circle. Its situation is unrivalled in Northern India, politically, topographically, and commercially, and it is held by European Troops.

In the Delhi Circle then the following Districts might be included:

N. W. Provinces...	Meerut.
	Boolundshuhur.
	Mozuffernugger.
	Seharunpore.
	Dehra Dhoon.
Delhi Territory ...	Delhi.
	Paneeput.
	Goorgaon.
	Rohtuk.

Hurrianah ...	Sirsa.
	Hissar.
	Jhujjur.
Cis-Sutlej States...	Umballa.
	Thanesur.
	Loodianah.
	Simla.

In all these Districts the Oordoo and Hindi languages are used: although Punjabee is spoken in the Cis-Sutlej States. But as Umballa is a large Station situated at some distance from Delhi, an Office of Sub-Issue might be established there.

19. In the Punjab, Lahore, as being the Capital, as being very close to the great mart Umritsur, and as being a remarkably central situation, is obviously fitted for the Head-Quarters of a Circle. In this Circle it will be desirable to include all the Districts up to the North-Western Frontier at Peshawur. The traffic of Peshawur is great and increasing, but an Office of Sub-Issue should suffice. In the Lahore Circle then the following Districts would be included:

Lahore.	Kangra.
Umritsur.	Goojerat.
Goojranwalla	Shahpore.
Scalkote.	Jhelum.
Goordaspore.	Rawul Pindee.
Ferozepore.	Huzara.
Jullundur.	Peshawur.
Hoshyarpore.	Kohat.

In these Districts the Hindoostanee or Oordoo language is now understood: the addition of Hindi would not be of much use. The Goormokhee character in which the Punjabee language is written might be added. The Oordoo and Goormookhee characters then might be used in the Notes.

20. In the Southern Punjab, Mooltan is commercially and politically the central place. Its situation both for Steamers and Railways is wonderfully good, and its commerce is rising fast. It is held by an European Force. It might be the Head-Quarters of a Circle.

In the Mooltan Circle the following Districts might be included:

Mooltan.	Dera Ghazee Khan.
Gogaira.	Leia.
Jhung.	Mozuffergurh.
Dera Ismail Khan.

In these Districts the Oordoo language is understood, and the Goormookhee might be added. The Oordoo and Goormookhee characters might be used on the Notes.

21. In Central India there are the Saugor and Nerbudda Territories and Ajmere. These might be made into a Circle with its Head-Quarters at Saugor, where there is an European Force and a Civil Station, and a considerable trade. In this Circle would be the following Districts:

Saugor.	Jaloun.
Dumoh.	Jhansi.
Jubbulpore.	Chundeyree.
Seonee.	Jaood Neemuch.
Mundla.	Nimar.
Hoshungabad.	Ajmere.
Baitool.	Nagode.
Nursingpore.

In these Districts the Oordoo and Hindi languages are understood, and the characters of both might be used on the Notes.

22. To the Circles of the Bengal Presidency there may be added one for Burmah with Head-Quarters at Pegu. The Circle would include all the Districts of British Burmah, and perhaps also those of the Tenasserim Province, with an Office of Sub-Issue at Moulmein. It does not seem necessary to make a separate Circle for Tenasserim. The Notes will bear the Burmese character, as that language is used in all the Districts.

23. The proposed Circles of the Bengal Presidency are now complete. To these several Circles the Notes would be supplied from Calcutta, and they would be payable either at the Head-Quarters of their proper Circle, or at Calcutta.

24. In the Madras Presidency the first Circle will be that of Madras itself. In and about Madras the Tamil and Teloogoo languages are used. The Teloogoo language prevails in the Districts along the East Coast, known as the Northern Circars—also in most of the Districts formerly ceded from the Nizam's Territory. The trade of these Districts, and especially that of the Coast Districts for the most part finds its way to Madras. The Districts of the Northern Circars near the mouth of the Godavery are rapidly advancing in prosperity. In the Madras Circle then the following Districts might be included:—

Madras, Chingleput.
North Arcot.
Nellore.
Ceded Districts ...	Cuddapah.
	Kurnool.
	Guntoor.
Northern Circars...	Masulipatam.
	Rajahmundry.
	Vizagapatam.
	Ganjam.

In the Notes the Tamil and Teloogoo character might be used. In consideration of the distance of the Northern Circar Districts from Madras a Sub-Issue Office at Vizagapatam might be allowed.

25. A Circle will then be needed in the Southern tongue of the Peninsula. The Tamil language is used in the Districts on the Coromandel side. But the Districts on the Malabar side, such as Travancore, Cochin and Malabar, use the Malayalim language, and understand no other. For this provision must be made. As the Head-Quarters of this Circle Trichinopoly naturally suggests itself as being a Civil Station with an European Force centrically situated, and near to the rich District of Tanjore, called the garden of South India.

In the Trichonopoly Circle then the following Districts might be included:

Trichonopoly.	Salem.
Tanjore.	Travancore.
Madura.	Cochin.
Tinnevelly.	Malabar.
South Arcot.	Coimbatore,

The Notes might bear the Tamil and Malayalim characters.

26. The East and South portions of the Presidency having thus been arranged for, there remain the West and North portions. Along the West Coast (Canara), and on the Table Lands of Mysore and Hyderabad Territory, and in the Southern extremity of the Bombay Presidency, above the Ghaut Mountains, the Canarese language prevails. In Lower Canara also the Malayalim language prevails.

The following Districts might be included in the Circle:

Coorg.	North Canara.
Mysore.	South Canara.
Bellary.	Dharwar, Belgaum, within Bombay Presidency,

and the Raichore Doab, one of the recently Assigned Hyderabad Districts. The only difficulty in this Circle is the selection of a place for Head-Quarters. There are in this part of the country three Stations of European Troops, namely, Bellary, Bangalore, and Belgaum. Bangalore is divided by mountains from the Coast where the trade exists, and has no considerable trade of its own. Belgaum (within limits of Bombay Presidency), again is just on the Northern extremity of the Circle, and its situation is the reverse of centrical to the Circle. It has however a trade and lies on the high road from the Coast to the Deccan.

The third place is Bellary, this is more centrical than Belgaum, and has a trade with the Coast with which indeed its communication is likely to improve. On the whole it appears the fittest place for the Head-Quarters of this Circle.

In the Notes of this Circle the Canarese and Malayalim languages would be used.

27. Such are the proposed Circles for the Madras Presidency. The Notes would be convertible either at the Head-Quarters of their proper Circle: or at Madras.

28. In the Bombay Presidency the first Circle will be that of Bombay itself. Within that Circle would come the Districts of South Concan.	Sholapore.

Sattara.	Daraseo (Hydrabad Assigned Districts).
Ahmed Nuggur.	Joneer.
Poona.	Tanna.
Candeish.

The trade of these Districts of course is centred at the Capital of the Presidency. The language used is chiefly Mahratta. The Notes would bear that character and also the Hindoostanee character.

29. To the North of Bombay there are the rich Cotton growing Districts where the Goozeerattee language is spoken: and the trade of which converges to Surat. It will be necessary to have a Circle here, and consisting of the following Districts, viz.:—

Surat.	Ahmedabad.
Broach.	Khaira.

The Notes would bear the Goozeerattee and also the Hindostanee characters. The Head-Quarters would be at Ahmedabad, where there is an European Force and a considerable trade, especially in Opium.

30. There remains the Province of Sindh, of which the growing trade will soon give a large employment for the Note Currency. The Head-Quarters would be at Hyderabad, the old Capital, where there is an European Force, and the Circle would comprise the following Districts:

Hyderabad.	Shikarpore.
Kurrachee.	Sindh Frontier Division.

The Notes would bear the Sindhie and Hindostanee characters.

31. It is proposed to include the Nagpore Province in the Circles pertaining to the Bombay Presidency. This Province is peculiarly situated in the very heart of India. It is a great producing country, and sends its produce to distant marts, to Mirzapore in the North, to Coringa near the mouth of Godavery on the East, to Bombay on the West. It has indeed three distant outlets for its traffic. Now it would be very difficult to combine Nagpore with the Northern Circars of Madras, or with the North-West Provinces of Bengal. If combined with the Saugor and Nerbuddah Territories, which would be geographically possible, then it would fall within the North-West Provinces. On the whole it seems best to make Nagpore a separate Circle, and place it together with the Bombay Circles: so that a Nagpore Note may be convertible either at Nagpore or at Bombay, with which latter Capital Nagpore has more connexion than any other. The Nagpore Notes might bear the Mahratta and Hindostanee characters.

32. Such are the proposed Circles for the Bombay Presidency. The Notes would be convertible either at the Head-Quarters of their proper Circles or at Bombay.

33. The several Districts throughout India have now been briefly considered. According to this scheme there will be seventeen Circles in all; distributed as follows among the three Presidencies—

Bengal	...	10
Madras	...	3
Bombay	...	4
Total	...	17

The number will probably not appear excessive when the vast extent of Territory, the numerous Districts consisting of no less than 180 or thereabouts—the variety of languages and characters, of which no less than 15 will appear on the Notes—are all considered. Every care has been taken to reduce the Circles as much as possible consistently with the important objects in view.

No. 37.

The 10th May 1860.

As the object which the Government has in view in calling in the Treasury Bills which are now in circulation appears to be greatly misunderstood, and as an apprehension appears to exist that it is intended as an indirect mode of creating new Loans, the Government deems it needful to issue the following explanation.

On the 20th of April 1859, under Notification, No. 28, a five-and-a-half per cent Loan was opened limited to five crores, upon certain conditions: And it was understood that the Government would open no new Loan before the first of May 1860, and which understanding has been strictly adhered to, that Loan was closed in the ordinary way on the 14th of February last. But there still remained open the issue of Treasury Bills in the two forms under the Notification, No. 34, of the 30th of April 1859, of indefinite duration and amount; and which, as long as such an issue lasted, acted as a continual and unlimited means of borrowing on the part of the Government, and of absorbing money from the market. It was the desire of the Government, after the closing of the five-and-a-half per cent Loan, also to close all other means by which the Treasury could borrow money, and therefore by Notification, No. 33, dated the 27th ultimo, notice was given that money would cease to be received for the purchase of Treasury Bills, and that this means of creating debt would be closed.

But it became necessary to consider how to deal with the amount of Bills in circulation, which thus constituted a portion of the public debt, and it was decided that the amount being very small, only about 23 Lakhs in this Presidency, and 59 Lakhs for all other parts of India, including all the different classes of Treasury Bills; i. e., 3 pie Bills, and 2½ pie Bills Nos. 1 and 2;

the owners should have the choice of converting them into a permanent Stock, or of receiving their money as the Bills fell due. An option is given to them to take four per cent, five per cent, or five-and-a-half per cent Stock, subject to the same terms as regards the time and conditions of repayment, as applied to those several Stocks, which have already been closed; but at such a price as the Government shall fix.

It must be plain that by this option given to the present holders of Treasury Bills, the Government does not add to its entire debt or abstract any money from the market: while, by the arrangement, the Government closes the Treasury against any further borrowing. All that is now done is to convert a debt, for payment of which the Government might be called upon at short and uncertain times, into one of a more fixed and permanent character, as certainty is essential to the economical management of the public finances; such conversion, however, to take place entirely at the option of the holders, and provided they are willing to give such terms as the Government think fair to the public: otherwise they will be paid off in cash.

So far therefore from this operation being intended as a new mode of indirectly raising Loans, it is adopted as a plan of effectually closing all the existing means open to the Treasury of borrowing money; which will be made more apparent when it is stated that the Government has no intention of coming upon the Indian Money Market for Loans of any kind whatever, whether in the shape of Treasury Bills, or in any other form, during the current financial year ending the 30th of April 1861.

No. 37.

Fort William, the 10th May 1860.

Notification.—As the object which the Government has in view in calling in the Treasury Bills which are now in circulation appears to be greatly misunderstood, and as an apprehension appears to exist that it is intended as an indirect mode of creating new Loans, the Government deems it needful to issue the following explanation.

On the 20th of April 1859, under Notification, No. 28, a five-and-a-half per cent Loan was opened limited to five crores, upon certain conditions: And it was understood that the Government would open no new Loan before the first of May 1860, and which understanding has been strictly adhered to, that Loan was closed in the ordinary way on the 14th of February last. But there still remained open the issue of Treasury Bills in the two forms under the Notification, No. 34, of the 30th of April 1859, of indefinite duration and amount; and which, as long as such an issue lasted, acted as a continual and unlimited means of borrowing on the part of the Government, and of absorbing money from the market. It was the desire of the Government, after the closing of the five-and-a-half per cent Loan, also to close all other means by which the Treasury could borrow money, and therefore by Notification, No. 33, dated the 27th ultimo, notice was given that money would cease to be received for the purchase of Treasury Bills, and that this means of creating debt would be closed.

But it became necessary to consider how to deal with the amount of Bills in circulation, which thus constituted a portion of the public debt, and it was decided that the amount being very small, only about 23 Lakhs in this Presidency, and 59 Lakhs for all other parts of India, including all the different classes of Treasury Bills; i. e., 3 pie Bills, and 2½ pie Bills Nos. 1 and 2; the owners should have the choice of converting them into a permanent Stock, or of receiving their money as the Bills fell due. An option is given to them to take four per cent, five per cent, or five-and-a-half per cent Stock, subject to the same terms as regards the time and conditions of repayment, as applied to those several Stocks, which have already been closed; but at such a price as the Government shall fix.

It must be plain that by this option given to the present holders of Treasury Bills, the Government does not add to its entire debt or abstract any money from the market: while, by the arrangement, the Government closes the Treasury against any further borrowing. All that is now done is to convert a debt, for payment of which the Government might be called upon at short and uncertain times, into one of a more fixed and permanent character, as certainty is essential to the economical management of the public finances; such conversion, however, to take place entirely at the option of the holders, and provided they are willing to give such terms as the Government think fair to the public: otherwise they will be paid off in cash.

So far therefore from this operation being intended as a new mode of indirectly raising Loans, it is adopted as a plan of effectually closing all the existing means open to the Treasury of borrowing money; which will be made more apparent when it is stated that the Government has no intention of coming upon the Indian Money Market for Loans of any kind whatever, whether in the shape of Treasury Bills, or in any other form, during the current financial year ending the 30th of April 1861.

Simla, the 4th May 1860.

His Excellency the Governor General is pleased to direct the publication of the following Despatch, No. 138, dated 29th March 1860, from the Secretary of State for India, and the Regulation received therewith, respecting the Pay, Sea Clothing and Stores, for Recruits proceeding to India from the Depôt at Warley:—

India Office,
London, 29th March 1860.

Military.
No. 138.

His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

My Lord,

A practice has heretofore existed under which an allowance termed "Ship Money" has been issued to Recruits for all Arms of the Service on their embarking for India, from which certain deductions were made for Stores and certain articles of Sea Clothing supplied to them for their use on the voyage: Her Majesty's Government have now determined that that practice shall cease, and that in lieu thereof the Soldier shall receive the pay of his rank according to the Arm of the Service to which he belongs, from the date to which it was issued in England up to that of his debarkation in India, and that deductions shall be made therefrom for Rations and for such Stores and Sea Clothing as may be supplied to him under the Regulation, a copy of which is enclosed.

2. This Regulation will be in force from the present date, but will not have any retrospective operation.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) C. Wood.

Draft of a Regulation respecting the Pay, Sea Clothing and Stores for Recruits proceeding to India from the Depôt at Warley.

1. Every Recruit, on leaving the Depôt, will have his accounts closed up to the day of embarkation, and a certificate showing the date of last payment will accompany the usual Embarkation Roll to the Government of the Presidency to which he proceeds; the balance of this final account will be entered in his Pocket Ledger.

2. Every Recruit, on his arrival in India, will be entitled to receive, subject to the deduction mentioned below, the pay of his rank according to the Arm of the Service to which he belongs, from the date up to which it was issued in England up to that of his debarkation in India.

3. The following articles of Sea Clothing and Sea Stores will be put on board for each Recruit on embarking, and the cost of the same (which is unavoidably liable to variation,) will be recovered from him on the settlement of his accumulated pay, and credited to Government in the Pay Abstracts of the Regiment or Depôt to which he may be posted; for this purpose Returns (according to Form * annexed) of the issues to each man will be transmitted to India with the Detachment on board each Ship:—

5. To enable the Officer in Command of the Troops to meet any contingent expense that may occur during the voyage, cash to the amount of five Shillings per man will be handed to him by the Pay-Master of the Depôt, which he will account for on his arrival in India, debiting each man with any expenditure made on his behalf.

Notice.

In a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Pabun Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

An Act to amend Act XXII of 1855 (for the regulation of Ports and Port-dues), and Act XXIV of 1838 (for the levy of Port-dues at Ports within the Presidency of Fort St. George).

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that Port-dues, fees, and charges, leviable under Section XLIX of Act XXII of 1855, if not paid in the Port in which any such dues, fees, or charges, may under the said Act have become due and payable, shall be recoverable in any Port in British India by the Collector of Customs or other Officer authorized to collect such Port-dues, fees, and charges in any such Port, and that in certain cases Vessels shall be exempt from such dues, fees, and charges; It is enacted as follows :—

Port-dues &c. payable in one Port, recoverable by Collector at any other Port.

The Furlough granted under Medical Certificate, as absolutely necessary, will expire in England at the period of one year from the date of quitting India.

Every man whose state of health has not sufficiently recovered at the period when he is called upon to return, will undergo a medical examination as to the probability, within a reasonable period, of his being fit for further duty in India.

Those men who may be reported unequal to further service with the Regiment or Department to which they belong will not be permitted to return to duty, but will be dealt with under the Regulations, and in no case will any man be allowed to return to India with a view to his being placed upon the Invalid Establishment in that country.

No period of leave passed by any man out of India will be allowed to reckon as service for Pension.

It is to be distinctly understood that no man enlisted under the Limited Service Act be allowed to come to England during his first period of service.

The only allowance to be paid to men who obtain leave of absence will be the rate of pay for the time being for men of the same rank in Her Majesty's British Army and Good Conduct Pay, when in possession of that reward.

3. With reference to the Extract from a General Order by the Commander-in-Chief at Bombay, dated 30th July last, quoted in the margin, I have state that, in conceding the grant of Furlough, with a free passage to and from Europe to deserving Non-Commissioned Officers of Her Majesty's Indian Army, whose health requires a change of climate, it is not the intention of Her Majesty's Government that passages at the public expense should also be provided for the wives or families of those men; but, with the view of assisting such married men as may desire to bring their wives and families with them, you are authorized to grant them an allowance of (£20) Twenty Pounds.

The Commander-in-Chief is pleased to announce that passage to Europe will be provided for the families of Non-Commissioned Officers obtaining Furlough under the provisions of G. O. C. C. No. 2 of the 6th June 1859.

I have, &c.

Notice.

In a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Pabun Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

NOTIFICATION.

IN Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea cultivation.

Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negociate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Palum Valleys are now in the hands of Government.

Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by public auction, in lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 26TH MAY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 21st May 1860, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXI OF 1860.

An Act for the Registration of Literary, Scientific, and Charitable Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for improving the legal condition of Societies established for the promotion of Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, or for the diffusion of useful knowledge, or for Charitable purposes; It is enacted as follows :—

Societies formed by Memorandum of Association and Registration.

I. Any seven or more persons associated for any Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose, or for any such purpose as is described in Section XX of this Act, may, by subscribing their names to a Memorandum of Association, and filing the same with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, form themselves into a Society under this Act.

Memorandum of Association.

II. The Memorandum of Association shall contain the following things, (that is to say)—

The name of the Society.

The objects of the Society.

The names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body to whom, by the Rules of the Society, the management of its affairs is entrusted.

A copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three of the Members of the governing body, shall be filed with the Memorandum of Association.

Registration.

III. Upon such Memorandum and certified copy being filed, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the Society is registered under this Act.

Fees.

There shall be paid to the Registrar for every such registration a fee of fifty Rupees, or such smaller fee as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time direct; and all fees so paid shall be accounted for to Government.

Annual list of managing body to be filed.

IV. Once in every year on or before the 14th day succeeding the day on which, according to the Rules of the Society, the Annual General Meeting of the Society is held, or if the Rules do not provide for an Annual General Meeting, in the month of January, a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, of the names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society

Property of Society how to be vested.

V. The property, moveable and immoveable, belonging to a Society registered under this Act, if not vested in trustees, shall be deemed to be vested, for the time being, in the governing body of such Society, and in all proceedings, Civil and Criminal, may be described as the property of the governing body of such Society by their proper title.

How suits by and against Societies to be brought.

VI. Every Society registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the President, Chairman, or Principal Secretary, or Trustees, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and in default of such determination, in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion; provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim or demand against the Society, to sue the President or Chairman, or Principal Secretary or the Trustees thereof, if on application to the governing body some other Officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

Suits not to abate.

VII. No suit or proceeding in any Civil Court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the person, by or against whom such suit or proceedings shall have been brought or continued, dying or ceasing to fill the character in the name whereof he shall have sued or been sued, but the same suit or proceeding shall be continued in the name of or against the successor of such person.

How judgment to be enforced against.

VIII. If a judgment shall be recovered against the person or Officer named on behalf of the Society, such judgment shall not be put in force against the property, moveable or immoveable, or against the body of such person or Officer, but against the property of the Society. The application for execution shall set forth the judgment, the fact of the party against whom it shall have been recovered having sued or having been sued, as the case may be, on behalf of the Society only, and shall require to have the judgment enforced against the property of the Society.

Society may make Bye-law to be enforced.

IX. Whenever by any Bye-law duly made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Society, or, if the Rules do not provide for the making of Bye-laws, by any Bye-law made at a General Meeting of the Members of the Society convened for the purpose, (for the making of which the concurrent votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting shall be necessary), any pecuniary penalty is imposed for the breach of any Rule or Bye-law of the Society, such penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any Court having jurisdiction where the defendant shall reside, or the Society shall be situate, as the governing body thereof shall deem expedient.

Members liable to be sued as strangers.

X. Any Member who may be in arrear of a subscription which according to the Rules of the Society he is bound to pay, or who shall possess himself of or detain any property of the Society in a manner or for a time contrary to such Rules, or shall injure or destroy any property of the Society, may be sued for such arrear or for the damage accruing from such detention, injury, or destruction of property in the manner hereinbefore provided. But if the defendant shall be successful in any suit or other proceeding brought against him at the instance of the Society, and shall be adjudged to recover his costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose name the suit shall be brought, or from the Society, and in the latter case shall have process against the property of the said Society in the manner above described.

Members guilty of offences punishable as strangers.

XI. Any Member of the Society who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any money or other property, or wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure any property of such Society, or shall forge any deed, bond, security for money, receipt, or other instrument, whereby the funds of the Society may be exposed to loss, shall be subject to the same prosecution, and if convicted shall be liable to be punished in like manner, as any person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like offence.

Societies enabled to alter, extend, or abridge their purposes.

XII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing body of any Society registered under this Act, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such purpose to or for other purposes within the meaning of this Act, or to amalgamate such Society either wholly or partially with any other Society, such governing body may submit the proposition to the Members of the Society in a written or printed report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Society; but no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every Member of the Society ten days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing body for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifths of the Members delivered in person or by proxy, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at a second Special Meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former Meeting.

Provision for the dissolution of Societies and adjustment of their affairs.

XIII. Any number not less than three-fifths of the Members of any Society may determine that it shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the time then agreed upon, and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of the Society, its claims, and liabilities, according to the Rules of the said Society applicable thereto if any, and, if not, then as the governing body shall find expedient, provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the said governing body or the Members of the Society, the adjustment of its affairs shall be referred to the principal Court of original Civil jurisdiction of the District in which the chief building of the Society is situate; and the Court shall make such order in the matter as it shall deem requisite. Provided that no Society shall be dissolved unless three-fifths of the Members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general Meeting convened for the purpose. Provided that whenever the Government is a Member of, or a contributor to, or otherwise interested in any Society registered under this Act, such Society shall not be dissolved without the consent of Government.

Upon a dissolution no Member to receive profit.

XIV. If upon the dissolution of any Society registered under this Act there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Society or any of them, but shall be given to some other Society, to be determined by the votes of not less than three-fifths of the Members present personally or by proxy at the time of the dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Court as aforesaid; provided however that this Clause shall not apply to any Society which shall have been founded or established by the contributions of shareholders in the nature of a Joint-Stock Company.

Proviso for Joint-Stock Companies.

Who is a Member.

XV. For the purposes of this Act a Member of a Society shall be a person who having been admitted therein according to the Rules and Regulations thereof, shall have paid a subscription, or shall have signed the roll or list of Members thereof, and shall not have resigned in accordance with such Rules and Regulations; but in all proceedings under this Act no person shall be entitled to vote or be counted as a Member whose subscription at the time shall have been in arrear for a period exceeding three months.

The governing body defined.

XVI. The governing body of the Society shall be the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, Trustees, or other body to whom by the Rules and Regulations of the Society the management of its affairs is entrusted.

XVII. Any Company or Society established for a Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose and registered under Act XLIII of 1850, or any such Society established and constituted previously to the passing of this Act but not registered under the said Act XLIII of 1850, may at any time hereafter be registered as a Society under this Act; subject to the proviso that no such Company or Society shall be registered under this Act unless an assent to its being so registered has been given by three-fifths of the Members present personally, or by proxy, at some General Meeting convened for that purpose by the governing body. In the case of a Company or Society registered under Act XLIII of 1850, the Directors shall be deemed to be such governing body. In the case of a Society not so registered, if no such body shall have been constituted on the establishment of the Society, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due notice, to create for itself a governing body to act for the Society thenceforth

Such Societies to file Memorandum &c., with Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies.

No. 557 of 1860.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council has great satisfaction in publishing for general information, the subjoined copy of a General Order, dated Canton, 5th of April 1860, issued by Major General Sir C. Van Straubenzee, K. C. B., Commanding the Troops in China, on the occasion of the return to India from that Command of the three Regiments of Bengal Native Infantry named in the margin, after the completion of two years' service in China.

47th Native Infantry.
65th " "
70th " "

These Regiments volunteered for service in that Country at the time when the body of the Bengal Native Army swerved from its allegiance and rose in arms against the State. They were again entrusted with their Arms, and the Governor General in Council allowed them to proceed to China, in full reliance on their loyalty.

That reliance has been entirely justified by the exemplary conduct of these Regiments in China; and the Governor General in Council while publicly recording circumstances so creditable to these Corps, tenders to Brigadier W. R. Corfield, and to the Officers of the 47th, 65th, and 70th Regiments, the cordial acknowledgments of the Government of India, for having maintained these Corps in the state of order and discipline described by Major General Van Straubenzee.

These Regiments will proceed to the Stations assigned to them; and will, under the orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, enjoy the full benefit of additional furlough to their homes, which forms one of the privileges of Foreign Service.

Canton, April 5th, 1860.

Division after Order.

Her Majesty's 70th Bengal Native Infantry having embarked, and the 65th being on the eve of returning to India, the Brigade of Bengal Native Infantry in China will cease to exist.

Major-General Sir Charles Van Straubenzee takes the opportunity of recording his cordial thanks to Brigadier Corfield for the ready support he, not only as a Brigadier, but as next Senior Officer in the Command, has at all times afforded him; and also for the order and high state of discipline he, with the assistance of the Officers Commanding Corps, has maintained in his Brigade, against which there has not been a single complaint on the part of the Inhabitants of this vast City during the two years they have been quartered here.

The Bengal Brigade left India Volunteers for service in China, at a time when their former comrades of the late Indian Army were in a state of open mutiny and revolt, and their conduct here has been such as to prove the sincerity of their loyalty to their Sovereign, the Queen of England.

Their obedience to orders, respect for their Officers, and uncomplaining conduct under difficulties incident to their position, in a land where the customs are so utterly foreign to their own, merit the Major-General's praise.

The Major-General congratulates all on their return to India, and assures them they carry with them his best wishes.

This privilege, which is granted to Officers under the joint operation of the Regulations of 1796 and 1854, may in some cases be rendered inoperative by the Regulation of 1801, which precludes them from claiming for retirement the benefit of rank which they may attain after the expiration of twelve months from the date of their landing in England. It has therefore been resolved to rescind this restrictive Rule, so far as it affects the cases of Officers who, after twenty years' Indian Service counting for retiring pension, may return to this country on leave, and to allow such Officers to claim for retirement the benefits of any rank they may attain prior to the expiration of their twenty-two years' service.

Notice.

IN a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Pulum Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

Legislative Council of India.

THE 26TH MAY 1860.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 21st May 1860, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXI OF 1860.

An Act for the Registration of Literary, Scientific, and Charitable Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for improving the legal condition of Societies established for the promotion of Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, or for the diffusion of useful knowledge, or for Charitable purposes; It is enacted as follows :—

Societies formed by Memorandum of Association and Registration.

I. Any seven or more persons associated for any Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose, or for any such purpose as is described in Section XX of this Act, may, by subscribing their names to a Memorandum of Association, and filing the same with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, form themselves into a Society under this Act.

Memorandum of Association.

II. The Memorandum of Association shall contain the following things, (that is to say)—

The name of the Society.

The objects of the Society.

The names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body to whom, by the Rules of the Society, the management of its affairs is entrusted.

A copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three of the Members of the governing body, shall be filed with the Memorandum of Association.

Registration.

III. Upon such Memorandum and certified copy being filed, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the Society is registered under this Act.

Fees.

There shall be paid to the Registrar for every such registration a fee of fifty Rupees, or such smaller fee as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time direct; and all fees so paid shall be accounted for to Government.

Annual list of managing body to be filed.

IV. Once in every year, on or before the 14th day succeeding the day on which, according to the Rules of the Society, the Annual General Meeting of the Society is held, or if the Rules do not provide for an Annual General Meeting, in the month of January, a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, of the names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society

Property of Society how to be vested.

V. The property, moveable and immoveable, belonging to a Society registered under this Act, if not vested in trustees, shall be deemed to be vested, for the time being, in the governing body of such Society, and in all proceedings, Civil and Criminal, may be described as the property of the governing body of such Society by their proper title.

How suits by and against Societies to be brought.

VI. Every Society registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the President, Chairman, or Principal Secretary, or Trustees, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and in default of such determination, in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion; provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim or demand against the Society, to sue the President or Chairman, or Principal Secretary or the Trustees thereof, if on application to the governing body some other Officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

Suits not to abate.

VII. No suit or proceeding in any Civil Court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the person, by or against whom such suit or proceedings shall have been brought or continued, dying or ceasing to fill the character in the name whereof he shall have sued or been sued, but the same suit or proceeding shall be continued in the name of or against the successor of such person.

How judgment to be enforced against.

VIII. If a judgment shall be recovered against the person or Officer named on behalf of the Society, such judgment shall not be put in force against the property, moveable or immoveable, or against the body of such person or Officer, but against the property of the Society. The application for execution shall set forth the judgment, the fact of the party against whom it shall have been recovered having sued or having been sued, as the case may be, on behalf of the Society only, and shall require to have the judgment enforced against the property of the Society.

Society may make Bye-law to be enforced.

IX. Whenever by any Bye-law duly made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Society, or, if the Rules do not provide for the making of Bye-laws, by any Bye-law made at a General Meeting of the Members of the Society convened for the purpose, (for the making of which the concurrent votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting shall be necessary), any pecuniary penalty is imposed for the breach of any Rule or Bye-law of the Society, such penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any Court having jurisdiction where the defendant shall reside, or the Society shall be situate, as the governing body thereof shall deem expedient.

Members liable to be sued as strangers.

X. Any Member who may be in arrear of a subscription which according to the Rules of the Society he is bound to pay, or who shall possess himself of or detain any property of the Society in a manner or for a time contrary to such Rules, or shall injure or destroy any property of the Society, may be sued for such arrear or for the damage accruing from such detention, injury, or destruction of property in the manner hereinbefore provided. But if the defendant shall be successful in any suit or other proceeding brought against him at the instance of the Society, and shall be adjudged to recover his costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose name the suit shall be brought, or from the Society, and in the latter case shall have process against the property of the said Society in the manner above described.

Members guilty of offences punishable as strangers.

XI. Any Member of the Society who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any money or other property, or wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure any property of such Society, or shall forge any deed, bond, security for money, receipt, or other instrument, whereby the funds of the Society may be exposed to loss, shall be subject to the same prosecution, and if convicted shall be liable to be punished in like manner, as any person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like offence.

Societies enabled to alter, extend, or abridge their purposes.

XII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing body of any Society registered under this Act, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such purpose to or for other purposes within the meaning of this Act, or to amalgamate such Society either wholly or partially with any other Society, such governing body may submit the proposition to the Members of the Society in a written or printed report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Society; but no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every Member of the Society ten days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing body for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifths of the Members delivered in person or by proxy, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at a second Special Meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former Meeting.

Provision for the dissolution of Societies and adjustment of their affairs.

XIII. Any number not less than three-fifths of the Members of any Society may determine that it shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith, or at the time then agreed upon, and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of the Society, its claims, and liabilities, according to the Rules of the said Society applicable thereto if any, and, if not, then as the governing body shall find expedient, provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the said governing body or the Members of the Society, the adjustment of its affairs shall be referred to the principal Court of original Civil jurisdiction of the District in which the chief building of the Society is situate; and the Court shall make such order in the matter as it shall deem requisite. Provided that no Society shall be dissolved unless three-fifths of the Members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general Meeting convened for the purpose. Provided that whenever the Government is a Member of, or a contributor to, or otherwise interested in any Society registered under this Act, such Society shall not be dissolved without the consent of Government.

Upon a dissolution no Member to receive profit.

XIV. If upon the dissolution of any Society registered under this Act there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Society or any of them, but shall be given to some other Society, to be determined by the votes of not less than three-fifths of the Members present personally or by proxy at the time of the dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Court as aforesaid; provided however that this Clause shall not apply to any Society which shall have been founded or established by the contributions of shareholders in the nature of a Joint-Stock Company.

Proviso for Joint-Stock Companies.

Who is a Member.

XV. For the purposes of this Act a Member of a Society shall be a person who having been admitted therein according to the Rules and Regulations thereof, shall have paid a subscription, or shall have signed the roll or list of Members thereof, and shall not have resigned in accordance with such Rules and Regulations; but in all proceedings under this Act no person shall be entitled to vote or be counted as a Member whose subscription at the time shall have been in arrear for a period exceeding three months.

The governing body defined.

XVI. The governing body of the Society shall be the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, Trustees, or other body to whom by the Rules and Regulations of the Society the management of its affairs is entrusted.

Registration of Societies formed before this Act.

XVII. Any Company or Society established for a Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose and registered under Act XLIII of 1850, or any such Society established and constituted previously to the passing of this Act but not registered under the said Act XLIII of 1850, may at any time hereafter be registered as a Society under this Act; subject to the proviso that no such Company or Society shall be registered under this Act unless an assent to its being so registered has been given by three-fifths of the Members present personally, or by proxy, at some General Meeting convened for that purpose by the governing body. In the case of a Company or Society registered under Act XLIII of 1850, the Directors shall be deemed to be such governing body. In the case of a Society not so registered, if no such body shall have been constituted on the establishment of the Society, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due notice, to create for itself a governing body to act for the Society thenceforth.

Such Societies to file Memorandum &c., with Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies.

XVIII. In order to any such Society as is mentioned in the last preceding Section obtaining registry under this Act, it shall be sufficient that the governing body file with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, a Memorandum showing the name of the Society, the objects of the Society, and the names, addresses, and occupations of the governing body, together with a copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society certified as provided in Section II, and a copy of the report of the Proceedings of the General Meeting at which the registration was resolved on.

No. 577 of 1860.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that an Examination shall be held, as soon as practicable after the receipt of the Order, in each of the Stations of the Bengal Presidency to which Superintending Surgeons are attached, for the purpose of filling up vacancies in the Military Class of the Medical College. The College Session commences on the 15th June.

2. All Candidates will be required to possess a knowledge of the Hindoostanie language, sufficient to enable them to read and write common letters and petitions, and Hospital Registers of Sick, in the Devanagri or Persian character, and to converse with a Sepoy in the Hindoostanie language.

3. Although a knowledge of English will not be insisted on in all cases, a preference in selection is to be given to those Candidates who possess a competent knowledge of English, in addition to Hindoostanie.

4. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will also be given to those who have already been attached to or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals. Beyond this, preference will not be given to men of any particular class; but respectable young men, especially those educated in the Schools of Behar, the North-Western Provinces and the Punjaub, are encouraged to offer themselves, bringing certificates of character and acquirements from the Inspectors or Head Masters of the Schools.

5. Those holding such recommendations from the School Authorities, and certificates of physical fitness from the nearest Medical Officers, will not be required to appear before the Committees. As however the number who can be admitted to the College from each Division is very limited, it is necessary that the School Authorities should send the papers of all Candidates, as soon as possible after the promulgation of this Order, to the Superintending Surgeon of the Division who, the recommendations being equal, will select, in preference, those whose nominations are earliest received.

6. The Examination is equally open to the sons of Soldiers, and of persons engaged in Civil occupations.

7. The Candidates must be between the ages of 15 and 20 years.

8. No Candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier, and who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character. The strictest care and attention are to be exercised in examining the credentials of all Candidates who will, in addition, be required to bring regular Descriptive Rolls, in order that they may be identified.

9. The Superintending Surgeon is to prepare a General Roll (in the Form hereafter given) of all Candidates to be laid before the Committee, the Qualification Columns being left blank, for the Committee to fill up.

10. Committees for the examination of Candidates will be convened by the Officer Commanding the Station, upon the requisition of the Superintending Surgeon, and will consist of two Medical Officers and an Interpreter.

11. These examinations will, in future, be final as regards the admission of the Candidates into the Medical College, no subsequent examination in the College of Fort William being required.

12. Each passed Candidate is to be furnished by the Superintending Surgeon with a Descriptive Roll in the subjoined Form, which he is to present to the Principal of the College, and which will be his warrant for admission as a Student :—

The pay of Military Class Native Doctors, on appointment to the Service, is fixed at 20 Rupees a month in Garrison or at a Civil Station, and 25 Rupees a month in the Field, of which sums 5 Rupees are to be considered as Batta, and deducted when on leave of absence from Corps and Civil Stations.

20. Upon their admission they are to enter into an engagement to serve the Government as Native Doctors, as vacancies may occur, for a period of not less than seven years from the time of their leaving the Medical College in that capacity, unless prevented serving that period by physical inability proved before a Medical Committee and certified accordingly. After a service of seven years they may demand their discharge in time of peace.

21. In the event of their continuing to serve, their allowances will, after seven years, and upon undergoing a successful examination, be advanced to Rupees 25 in Garrison or at a Civil Station, and Rupees 30 in the Field.

22. A Native Doctor who, from wounds or injuries received on Service, shall become no longer fit to serve will be entitled, at any period less than fifteen years, to an Invalid Pension of Rupees 12 per mensem, after fifteen years to one-half of his Field Pay if in the Military, and of his Garrison Pay if in the Civil Branch of the Service, after twenty-two years to the whole of his pay.

Notice.

IN a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Palum Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 21st May 1860, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XXI OF 1860.

An Act for the Registration of Literary, Scientific, and Charitable Societies.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for improving the legal condition of Societies established for the promotion of Literature, Science, or the Fine Arts, or for the diffusion of useful knowledge, or for Charitable purposes; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. Any seven or more persons associated for any Literary, Scientific, or Charitable purpose, or for any such purpose as is described in Section XX of this Act, may, by subscribing their names to a Memorandum of Association, and filing the same with the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies under Act XIX of 1857, form themselves into a Society under this Act.

Societies formed by Memorandum of Association and Registration.

II. The Memorandum of Association shall contain the following things, (that is to say)—

Memorandum of Association.

The name of the Society.

The objects of the Society.

The names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body to whom, by the Rules of the Society, the management of its affairs is entrusted.

A copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Society, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three of the Members of the governing body, shall be filed with the Memorandum of Association.

III. Upon such Memorandum and certified copy being filed, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the Society is registered under this Act.

There shall be paid to the Registrar for every such registration a fee of fifty Rupees, or such smaller fee as the Governor General of India in Council may from time to time direct; and all fees so paid shall be accounted for to Government.

Fees.

IV. Once in every year, on or before the 14th day succeeding the day on which, according to the Rules of the Society, the Annual General Meeting of the Society is held, or if the Rules do not provide for an Annual General Meeting, in the month of January, a list shall be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, of the names, addresses, and occupations of the Governors, Council, Directors, Committee, or other governing body then entrusted with the management of the affairs of the Society.

Annual list of managing body to be filed.

V. The property, moveable and immoveable, belonging to a Society registered under this Act, if not vested in trustees, shall be deemed to be vested, for the time being, in the governing body of such Society, and in all proceedings, Civil and Criminal, may be described as the property of the governing body of such Society by their proper title.

VI. Every Society registered under this Act may sue or be sued in the name of the President, Chairman, or Principal Secretary, or Trustees, as shall be determined by the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and in default of such determination, in the name of such person as shall be appointed by the governing body for the occasion; provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim or demand against the Society, to sue the President or Chairman, or Principal Secretary or the Trustees thereof, if on application to the governing body some other Officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

IX. Whenever by any Bye-law duly made in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Society, or, if the Rules do not provide for the making of Bye-laws, by any Bye-law made at a General Meeting of the Members of the Society convened for the purpose, (for the making of which the concurrent votes of three-fifths of the Members present at such Meeting shall be necessary), any pecuniary penalty is imposed for the breach of any Rule or Bye-law of the Society, such penalty, when accrued, may be recovered in any Court having jurisdiction where the defendant shall reside, or the Society shall be situate, as the governing body thereof shall deem expedient.

But if the defendant shall be successful in any suit or other proceeding brought against him at the instance of the Society, and shall be adjudged to recover his costs, he may elect to proceed to recover the same from the Officer in whose name the suit shall be brought, or from the Society, and in the latter case shall have process against the property of the said Society in the manner above described.

Members guilty of offences punishable as strangers.

XI. Any Member of the Society who shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any money or other property, or wilfully and maliciously destroy or injure any property of such Society, or shall forge any deed, bond, security for money, receipt, or other instrument, whereby the funds of the Society may be exposed to loss, shall be subject to the same prosecution, and if convicted shall be liable to be punished in like manner, as any person not a Member would be subject and liable to in respect of the like offence.

XII. Whenever it shall appear to the governing body of any Society registered under this Act, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes, that it is advisable to alter, extend, or abridge such purpose to or for other purposes within the meaning of this Act, or to amalgamate such Society either wholly or partially with any other Society, such governing body may submit the proposition to the Members of the Society in a written or printed report, and may convene a Special Meeting for the consideration thereof according to the Regulations of the Society; but no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every Member of the Society ten days previous to the Special Meeting convened by the governing body for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifths of the Members delivered in person or by proxy, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifths of the Members present at a second Special Meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former Meeting.

Provision for the dissolution of Societies and adjustment of their affairs.

Provided that no Society shall be dissolved unless three-fifths of the Members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general Meeting convened for the purpose. Provided that whenever the Government is a Member of, or a contributor to, or otherwise interested in any Society registered under this Act, such Society shall not be dissolved without the consent of Government.

Upon a dissolution no Member to receive profit.

XIV. If upon the dissolution of any Society registered under this Act there shall remain, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the said Society or any of them, but shall be given to some other Society, to be determined by the votes of not less than three-fifths of the Members present personally or by proxy at the time of the dissolution, or in default thereof, by such Court as aforesaid; provided however that this Clause shall not apply to any Society which shall have been founded or established by the contributions of shareholders in the nature of a Joint-Stock Company.

Proviso for Joint-Stock Companies.

In the case of a Company or Society registered under Act XLIII of 1850, the Directors shall be deemed to be such governing body. In the case of a Society not so registered, if no such body shall have been constituted on the establishment of the Society, it shall be competent for the Members thereof, upon due notice, to create for itself a governing body to act for the Society thenceforth.

Notice.

IN a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Palum Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL OF THE POST OFFICE IN INDIA,
January 1st, 1859.

THE following Conditions are to be observed in sending Book-Packets by Post:—

1*st*.—The Postage must be pre-paid in full, by means of Postage Stamps affixed outside the Packet on its cover.

2*nd*.—Every Packet must be sent either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides, so as to admit of the enclosures being removed for examination.

3*rd*.—The Packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, prints or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment or vellum (to the exclusion, however, of letters whether sealed or open) and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written or plain, or any mixture of the three. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, &c., or of a portion thereof, will be allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books; and in short whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto.

4*th*.—The Packet must not contain any letter, closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor must there be any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written or printed in any such Packet or on its cover. Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.

5*th*.—No Book-Packet can be received if it exceeds two feet in length, width, or depth.

6*th*.—Any Packet which shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall have any letter or any communication of the nature of a letter written or printed in it or upon its cover will be charged with Letter Postage.

7*th*.—If a Packet be found to contain any letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other unauthorized enclosure, the letter or enclosure will be taken out and forwarded to the address on the Packet, charged with full Postage as an unpaid letter together with an additional Book-rate; that is, with the Postage chargeable on a Book weighing not more than half a lb, the remainder of the Packet, if duly pre-paid with Stamps, will then be forwarded to its address.

8*th*.—If a Packet be not sufficiently pre-paid with Stamps but nevertheless bear Stamps equal to a single Book-rate, it will be forwarded charged with the deficient Book-Postage together with an additional Book-rate; but any Packet which shall not bear Postage Stamps equal to a single Book-rate will be detained and charged with the Letter Postage.

9*th*.—No Book-Packet weighing more than three lbs can be sent to or from the East Indies or to New South Wales.

10*th*.—The Colonial Book-Post extends to those Colonies only which are so marked in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

11*th*.—In no case can a Book-Packet be sent to the Colonies (except at the letter rate of Postage,) through a Foreign Country.

Special Notice is directed to the subjoined Clauses of Rules, the want of attention to which has occasioned the Post Office much inconvenience.

2*nd*.—A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

3*rd*.—Under Section XXIII. of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon upon every letter without exception, which may be re-directed in any Post Office. For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta and addressed to Hooghly is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due, had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

4*th*.—The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters, not only imposes much labor upon them, but in large Offices seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood, that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

There is only one delivery of letters at the General Post Office on Sundays, and Banghy Parcels are neither received nor despatched on that day.

Letters and Newspapers despatched to and from the United Kingdom by private Vessels are liable to the following rates of Postage which must be pre-paid by Stamps :—

	Rs.	As.	Pie.
Letters not exceeding ½ oz. in weight	0	4	0
Ditto exceeding ½ oz. but not exceeding 1 oz.	0	8	0

And so on adding 8 annas for each oz. or fraction thereof which includes Inland Postage.

Newspapers not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, 2*d*. or 10 pie must be pre-paid in cash, and no Inland Postage is required upon such papers.

Parcels conveyed by the above opportunity for the United Kingdom are liable to Letter rates of Postage.

Notice.

The following is an Extract of an Order of the Government of India, No. 884 of the 13th July 1855 :—

" No Public Officer is authorized to send Covers on the Public Service by Post, without payment of Postage, unless he is at the time on active duty and in charge of the Office by virtue of which the privilege is enjoyed. All letters superscribed as 'on the Public Service only' must, even though the Postage thereon be not paid, be received and opened by the Officer to whom they are addressed, but if any such, or partially paid letter so superscribed, and addressed to any Officer except a Secretary to Government be found when opened, to relate to the private affairs of the Sender, the Postage will be debited to him and he will be further liable to be dealt with under Section XLVII., Act No. XVII. of 1854.

His Honor in Council further directs that unpaid or insufficiently paid letters addressed to any such Officer or Department and not superscribed "on the Public Service only" be refused, or if opened that it be at the risk and cost of the opener."

Letters arriving at the Presidency Towns by Mail Steamers will be immediately sorted for delivery according to the address alone, without any reference to instructions which may have been received regarding change of address; such changes will be left to be discovered by the Delivery Officers, and be corrected in the forward and unclaimed Departments of the Office.

Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter, without exception, which may be re-directed in the Post Office.

Letters, &c., received by the Steamer will be delivered at the Window of the Post Office only to parties who have registered their names. Applications to the Post Office on the day of the Steamer's arrival to intercept and re-direct letters, &c., cannot be attended to, as they are found not only to impose much labour but seriously retard the delivery and despatch of the Mails.

UNDER the orders of Government, no fourth delivery of letters by the Post Office is allowed. Mails which are received by Steamers from Suez at so late an hour in the day as not to admit of the letters being taken out for delivery by 6 P. M. are detained till the following morning, but parties who have registered their names under the usual fee, are entitled to receive their letters and Marseilles Newspapers so soon as the Mails are sorted, and which is generally about 2½ hours after receipt of the Mail, at the Post Office.

Forward Newspapers.—Extra or Forward Postage is chargeable on every Newspaper re-directed at the Post Office of original address and forwarded to another Post Office.

MAILS for Akyab, Rangoon and Moulmein are made up on the 3rd and 19th of each month, for transmission by the Contract Steamers or by Government Vessels, which sail on the morning of the 4th and 20th, unless the Contractors choose to postpone the departure for 48 hours, of which they have the power on making a requisition.

Notice.

In a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Palum Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

Edward Paske,
Asst. Commr., on Special duty.

Notice.

In a Notification by the Punjab Government, dated the 28th December 1859, it was intimated that of the extensive waste lands existing in the Kangra District, a considerable portion was well adapted for Tea Cultivation. Parties desirous of securing possession of waste land were invited to negotiate with Village Communities, and were promised the aid of an Officer, who would be deputed by Government to facilitate the transfer. Subsequently, in order to obviate the difficulties it was anticipated that Settlers might experience in purchasing lands direct from the Zemindars, the Local Authorities were authorized to purchase waste land for Government, in view to its re-sale to Settlers. It is hereby notified that about 10,000 acres of land in the Kangra and Palum Valleys are now in the hands of Government. Of this quantity about 6,000 acres will be sold at Kangra on the 1st July next, by Public Auction, in Lots not exceeding 200 acres each, at certain upset prices, which, together with a detail of the Lots, will be advertized on or about the 1st June next.

ACT No. XXVII OF 1860.

An Act for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend certain Acts now in force which provide greater security for persons paying to the representatives of deceased Hindoos, Mahomedans, and others not usually designated as British subjects, debts which are payable in respect of the estates of such deceased persons, and which facilitate the collection of such debts by removing all doubts as to the legal title to demand and receive the same ; It is enacted as follows :—

Acts repealed.

I. Act XX of 1841 (for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons) : so much of Act VIII of 1842 as relates to the said Act XX of 1841 : Act X of 1851 (to amend Act XX of 1841 for the administration of personal estate of deceased persons) : and Act VIII of 1854 (to explain and amend Act X of 1851 and Act XX of 1841*)*—are hereby repealed ; except as to certificates granted and acts done under the authority of the said laws before the passing of this Act.

No debt recoverable without a certificate.

II. No debtor of any deceased person shall be compelled in any Court to pay his debt to any person claiming to be entitled to the effects of any deceased person or any part thereof, except on the production of a certificate to be obtained in manner hereinafter mentioned, or of a probate or letters of administration, unless the Court shall be of opinion that payment of the debt is withheld from fraudulent or vexatious motives, and not from any reasonable doubt as to the party entitled.

Certificate how to be obtained.

III. The District Court within the jurisdiction of which the deceased shall have ordinarily resided at the time of his death, or if at that time he had no fixed place of residence then within the jurisdiction of which any part of the property of the deceased may be found, shall have authority to grant a certificate under this Act. The applicant in his petition shall set forth his title. The Court shall issue notice of application, inviting claimants, and fixing a day for hearing the petition, and upon the appointed day or as soon after as may be convenient shall determine the right to the certificate and grant the same accordingly.

Effect of Certificate.

IV. The certificate of the District Court shall be conclusive of the representative title against all debtors to the deceased, and shall afford full indemnity to all debtors paying their debts to the person in whose favor the certificate has been granted.

Court may take security from grantee of certificate.

V. The Court may take such security as it shall think necessary from any person to whom it shall grant a certificate, for rendering an account of debts received by him, and for indemnity of persons who may be entitled to the whole or any part of the monies received by virtue of such certificate, whose right to recover the same by regular suit against the holder of the certificate is not affected by this Act.

Sudder Court may suspend certificate granted by District Court, or direct further proceedings.

VI. The granting of such certificate may be suspended by an appeal to the Sudder Court, which Court may declare the party to whom the certificate should be granted, or may direct such further proceedings for the investigation of the title as it shall think fit. The Court may also, upon petition, after a certificate shall have been granted by the District Court, grant a fresh certificate in supersession of the certificate granted by the District Court. VII. Every certificate shall give authority to the person to whom the same is granted throughout the Presidency within which the same is granted, and no certificate subsequently granted in respect of the same property shall be valid or effectual, except as hereinafter mentioned.

Government Securities, Bank-Shares, and shares in Public Companies.

VIII. If the estate of the deceased shall include any Government Securities or Bank-Shares, or any shares in any Public Company, the certificate may empower the person certified as aforesaid to receive interest or dividends thereon, or on any of them, or to negotiate the same or any of them: in such case the certificate shall describe the securities and shares in respect of which such powers are given, and such powers shall not be vested by the certificate except by express words.

Appointment of Trustee in case of disputed succession.

IX. In the case of disputes among persons claiming to be jointly entitled to be proprietors of any Government Securities as the representatives of any deceased person, the District Court, whenever sufficient cause shall be shown, and on the request of any such claimant, may, so far as concerns the said securities, grant a certificate under this Act to such person as shall be from time to time appointed by the local Government to act as trustee under this Section, and shall specify in such certificate the several persons appearing to him to be such proprietors, and their several shares; and the said trustee by virtue of such certificate shall be entitled to receive and give discharges for the interest accruing due on such securities, and shall account for and pay the sum to the several persons specified in the certificate to be thereunto entitled, according to the shares therein set forth, and shall be empowered to act in all other respects concerning the said securities as agent for such persons, and shall be entitled to receive such commission, not exceeding one per centum on the sums received and paid by him, as the local Government shall think fit. X. If any such disputes among persons claiming to be proprietors of Government Securities are not ended within two years from the date of the certificate granted under the last preceding Section, the said trustee may apportion the principal sum of the said securities rateably among the parties appearing from the certificate to be proprietors thereof, and may apply for and receive new securities from the proper Officer appointed to issue the same in the respective names of the several parties certified to be entitled thereto; provided that such new securities shall be issued only according to the rules in use for the regulation and issue of such Government Securities, and the receipt of the said trustee for such new securities, by endorsement on the old securities or otherwise, shall be a legal discharge to the Government against the disputing parties claiming to be entitled to the several amounts for which such securities shall be issued. Provided always that, if the amount of any Government Securities in dispute or any part thereof shall not be sufficient to admit of their rateable division according to the rules applicable to the issue of such securities, the said trustee may sell and dispose of the disputed securities, or such part as shall be necessary under this provision, and apportion the proceeds thereof among the parties entitled to receive the same.

XX. Every certificate of administration granted under the last preceding Section shall, as regards the Government Securities, give authority to the person to whom the same shall be granted throughout the British Territories in India, and have the same effect throughout the said territories as a certificate granted under Section VII of this Act has within the Presidency within which the same is granted.
